

The HBLT Teaching Lesson

Hook – Capture the attention of your hearers with a story, song, quote, interesting fact, or other method that ties into your lesson

Book – Read the passage of Scripture you want to teach on

Look – Briefly look at other passages of Scripture that support your main passage

Took – Drive home the point that people can take with them from your lesson

Example

Hook – [Quick story] The first time I led a men's ministry group led to a serious study of the Bible. It was an odd group of men with differing views about the Bible, and nobody seemed to know how to keep the group on track. Everyone wanted to be a teacher.

Book – Romans 2:17-24 Hypocrisy in Unregenerate Jewish Teachers

Look – Passages warning against teaching error

1 Timothy 1:7

They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm (NIV).

James 3:1

Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly (NIV).

Took – If we feel strongly about teaching God's people, we must take the task of teaching His word seriously and with humility. Pray, Read, Pray!

The HBLT & Learning Styles

Innovative – Perceive with sensing and feeling and process reflectively. They need to answer the question, “Why?”

Analytical – Perceive with thinking and process reflectively. They need the facts to answer the question, “What?”

Common Sense – Perceive with thinking and process actively. Interested in how things work. These learners thrive from thinking through their experiences and need to answer the question, “How?”

Dynamic – Perceive with feeling and process actively. Primarily interested in self-directed discovery to come to their own conclusions through their own adventurous thoughts. They need to answer the question, “If?”

Example

Hook

Story of a sister in Christ dying suddenly. Q:What happens when we die?

Lord’s Day 22 Q&A 57

Q. How does “the resurrection of the body” comfort you?

A. Not only will my soul be taken immediately after this life to Christ its head,¹ but also my very flesh will be raised by the power of Christ, reunited with my soul and made like Christ’s glorious body.²

Book – Luke 23:43 The Thief on the Cross

Look – ¹ Luke 23:43; Phil. 1:21-23

² 1 Cor. 15:20, 42-46, 54; Phil. 3:21; 1 John 3:2

Took – Fix your hope on eternity with Jesus. Death in this life is just the beginning for the children of God. Place your full trust in the work of Jesus and begin living a new life in faithfulness to God. Read the Bible, Pray, and love God’s people.
